

Deloitte Eco Day and Easter Charity Event

Deloitte staff united once again for the Easter Holidays to support those who most required assistance in this holiday season. This time the money collected was used to purchase food products for Dzegvi Shelter, which shelters 78 people of various ages and social backgrounds starting from two-year-old children to single mothers, mentally and physically handicapped people and the elderly.

Besides providing humanitarian assistance, as part of Deloitte Eco Day we also financed the Dzegvi Gardening project, funding the following purchases: soil, nets, wooden benches, fruit trees, bamboo trees and conifers. On April 21, Deloitte staff joined the shelter inhabitants and planted the trees in the shelter garden.
