

Deloitte presentations at universities

Yesterday, Deloitte in Georgia completed a series of presentations at several of the leading Georgian universities. Deloitte professionals from each department met with students from the following universities: the University of Georgia, the Free University and Agricultural University of Georgia, the International Black Sea University, Caucasus University and Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University.

Deloitte in Georgia employees shared our Deloitte values with the students and explained the benefits of working at our firm.

All of the presentations proved to be very successful based on the interest the students expressed toward Deloitte and the number of CVs received by the firm for future employment.
