We are pleased to bring to your attention that Victor Kipiani, partner at Mgaloblishvili Kipiani Dzidziguri (MKD), has participated in Freshfields StrongerTogether regional meeting in Vienna on 22-23 June, 2017.

The meeting brought together senior partners from law firms Freshfields work with across CEE/CIS, as well as partners from Freshfields offices around the world, including members of a management team. Stronger Together was built over many years and the aim was to reinforce the connections between Freshfields and its relationship firms, to discuss business development and how to improve the services to existing and potential clients.

"It was a very useful event helping understanding different markets and getting knowing colleagues from various jurisdictions", says Victor Kipiani. "Besides, the participants were provided with a good insight on future shape of legal industry in a dynamically changing world and how we, as the lawyers, should be better equipped for handling some very imminent and critical changes".

Mgaloblishvili Kipiani Dzidziguri (MKD) is a member firm of a number of similar alliances which gives our team a unique opportunity to continue developing professional relationships across borders, exchanging knowledge required for meeting clients' expectations and discussing ways of winning more work with global law firms.
