

CFA Level 1: Financial Reporting and Analysis 1 day revision session

PwC Georgia Academy announces 1 day revision course for CFA level 1: Financial Reporting and Analysis.

CFA is recognized worldwide for its focus on current investment knowledge, analytical skills and ethical standards by financial industry professionals. It is one of the most respected credentials you can hold.

During the one-day revision, you will briefly review all the issues that may be relevant to the subject, as well as get practical advice on the examination strategy and be able to discuss any issues related to the topic.

1 day revision course also considers the exam-like test that will be analyzed at the meeting.
